

NEW STREET NAMES IN THE NORTHWEST

Commissioners Change Some West of Rock Creek.

IT MAY CREATE CONFUSION

Chain Bridge Road Becomes Nebraska
Avenue—Ridge Road Is Wiped Off the Map.

It may be that many residents of that section of the District west of Rock Creek and outside the limits of Georgetown went to bed last night under the impression that they knew their street and number and woke up this morning to find out they didn't.

This is because the District Commissioners after many weeks of cogitation succeeded late yesterday afternoon in deciding upon the changes to be made in the names of the streets in that section. The changes are in line with the adopted system of nomenclature in the subdivisions and many old streets are affected as well as quite a number which as yet appear on paper only. New names were adopted for the northeast section of the city several months ago.

In the small triangle between the District line, Rock Creek and the long streets a series of streets will be named after trees, Aspen, Beech, Chestnut, and Dogwood.

Some New Terraces.

For the slope west of Wesley Heights terraces have been named as follows: University terrace, Eskridge terrace, Hurst terrace, and Weaver terrace.

The changes are intended to make the streets appear in alphabetical order from W street north, as follows:

Susan B. Anthony Sour On Grover Cleveland

"Gush" and "Fol-de-rol" Are Terms She
Applies to Former President's Views Concerning Women.

ROCHESTER, April 26.—"Ridiculous! Pure fol-de-rol!" This is the comment Miss Susan B. Anthony makes on Grover Cleveland's article in the Ladies' Home Journal on women's clubs and woman's suffrage.

Women Best Judge.

"Well," she exclaimed, "What does Grover Cleveland know about the sanctity of the home and about the woman's sphere? Why, isn't woman herself the best judge of what woman's sphere should be? The men have been trying to tell us for years.

"We have no desire to vote if the men would do their duty. Why are not the laws enforced in regard to saloons, gambling places and disorderly houses? The women want a chance to see what they can do to make the present laws effective.

Keep Boys in Cradle.

"Mr. Cleveland remarks that the hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that rules the world. That would be all right if you could keep the boys in the cradle always. But the minute they are able to go to school temptations beset them on all sides.

"They have to pass any number of

HEVERS TO LEASE GREENWICH FARM

Carnegie's Niece Will Reside in Connecticut.

THEY LIKE BARKER'S PLACE

Schooling Ground for Horses One of Its Attractions—Prominent People
Own Estates Nearby.

GREENWICH, Conn., April 26.—James Hever, former coachman to Mrs. Thomas M. Carnegie, of Pittsburgh, and his wife, nee Miss Nancy Carnegie, a niece of Andrew Carnegie, are to reside in Greenwich the next year.

Mrs. Hever's thoughts turned to Greenwich upon her return from abroad last week, for she often visited Andrew Carnegie when he and his wife spent the summer here at Alta Crest, later the home of Alfred Peats.

Saturday she and her husband came to Greenwich and engaged a livervan to drive them in the country to the spot where Mrs. Hever spent many happy days.

Like Rhylander Farm.

Coming to Rhylander farm, the property of Varian Barker, they were smitten with its truly New England appearance and stopped there.

Mr. Barker is a young New Yorker of wealth, who bought the place some years ago and has since been interested in schooling horses. He has a schooling ground a half mile long, and this appealed to Mr. Hever and his wife, as did the homestead.

Mr. Barker is greatly surprised when he found his visitors wanted to lease the place, and it took considerable persuasion to get him to lease the 100-acre farm for one year. It is understood that when Mr. Hever had offered $5,000 for one year's rental Mr. Barker signed an agreement to put the farm in first-class shape and have it ready May 15.

Ate at Windsor Cafe.

The former coachman acted as though that was his present occupation, and after the drive was over they took dinner at the Windsor Cafe instead of going to a hotel. While a few years ago farms were plentiful and cheap here, today they are luxuries, millionaires from New York buying them to turn into vast estates.

Rhylander farm is located near North Cos Cob, and is surrounded by the estates of E. C. Converse, Conyers Manor, Ernest Thompson-Seton, called "Wyndygoul," and of Clyde Pritch, the playwright. Its value is said to be placed at $20,000.

The farm is to be cleared of everything, and will be furnished new by Mr. Hever. At present his address is 2 East Forty-fifth street, New York.

PIED PIPER COMPLETES WORK AT THE CAPITOL.

Edward L. Barclay, the professional rat catcher, assisted by his son, Clarence M. Barclay, has concluded his contract of clearing the Capitol of rats.

Mr. Barclay reports to the Superintendent of the building that he has killed on an average of fifteen rats a night, making the total number killed about 200.

Mr. Barclay does not claim that he has cleaned out all the rats, but has killed a large part of them. He says he may take up the work again later and try to destroy the last pestiferous rodent on the premises. The work of killing the rats was accomplished by means of traps being used to get them from their holes and hiding places.

ASPHALT TRUST HINTS AT BRIBERY IN PAVING

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., April 26.—Counselor C. L. Cole, who represents the Asphalt trust, has served councilmen with subpoenas, in which it is stated that he is seeking information as to why the paving contract for Atlantic avenue, estimated at $250,000, was given to the Cleveland Trinidad Asphalt Company, the rival of the trust.

Bribery is hinted at.

MASTER HORSESHOERS NOT TO GRANT INCREASE

The Master Horsehoers' Association, Local No. 41, held a special meeting at its hall, 737 Seventh street northwest, last evening. Twenty members attended.

The meeting was held to take action in regard to the demands made by the journeymen of Local No. 17, to have their wages increased after May 1.

After careful consideration of the matter it was decided not to accede to the demands of the journeymen for $3.50 per day regular wages and 75 cents per hour for working overtime.

SEEKING WHEREABOUTS OF A PRUSSIAN WOMAN

Officials of the German embassy are engaged in looking for a woman of West Prussia who came to America and married a man named Maguire, lived in Washington fourteen years, returned to her parents for a visit and then again being sent out to hunt up all the Maguires in the directory.

The woman is the daughter of a shopkeeper in Nistadt, Prussia. Upon her disappearance after visiting her old home her father wrote to the embassy and an agent has been sent out to hunt up all the Maguires in the directory.

NEW RIFLE CLUB MEETS TONIGHT

Expect to Perfect Permanent Organization.

OUTDOOR RANGE OBTAINED

Col. A. E. Randle Offers Site on Congress Heights and Will Lend Other Aid.

Permanent organization of the new National Capital Rifle and Revolver Club will be effected tonight at a meeting to be held at 826 Pennsylvania avenue northwest. The meeting will be called to order promptly at 8 o'clock.

President J. C. Bunn has sent out invitations to all those who signed the original petition for the formation of the club, and is especially anxious to have a large attendance. Committees will report on the establishment of both indoor and outdoor arrangements.

As far as an outdoor range is concerned the new organization has little to worry over, as Col. A. E. Randle has tendered the use of sufficient ground in Randle Park on Congress Heights, and in addition assured President Bunn that he will do all in his power to help in the construction of the range. Colonel Randle expressed himself as much interested in the encouragement of accurate shooting as a patriotic necessity, and thinks the club has a great future.

The plan of the club officials to establish traps for the benefit of the shotgun enthusiasts in the club has not yet been fully developed, but it is thought there will be at least one trap installed soon after the club gets started.

SPEEDILY CURED BY CUTICURA

"I had suffered terrible agony and pain for eight long years from a terrible eruption on the scalp and face. The best doctors were unable to help me, and I had spent a lot of money for many remedies without receiving any benefit. My scalp was covered with sores, my face was like a piece of raw beef, my eyebrows and lashes were falling out, and sometimes I felt as if I was burning up from the terrible itching and pain. I then began treating myself at home, and now my head and face are clear, and I am entirely well. I first rubbed my face with Cuticura Soap, then applied Cuticura Ointment to the afflicted parts, and took Cuticura Resolvent for the blood. I was greatly relieved after the first application, and continued use of Cuticura soon made a complete cure. Miss Mary F. Fay, Westboro, Mass."
